ADOPT THE HAZARD MITIGATION PLAN

Dep. Mayor Browning made a motion to authorize the Mayor to sign the Hazard Mitigation Plan. The motion was seconded by Trustee St. Germain. Trustee Strong asked if we are able to add or make note on the items that were brought up at the last meeting; he does not think some of the information came back initially when it was sent out to the dept. heads last July 2018 to formulate the document. He spoke of the EOC as something that we have, but we did not take credit for, along with four or five more pieces; he knows we wanted to move forward and FEMA has already put their stamp on it, but we are going to adopt something we cannot take credit; should it be grants or other opportunities, just for discussion. CEO Johnstone stated we can add to it, the couple of items that Trustee Strong brought to our attention can be added in after it is adopted; it does not need to be there when it is adopted. He continued it can be started tomorrow, next week; there is a one-year review that they could be put in as well. The Mayor stated we have sent the information in and it came back with some notes. CEO Johnstone stated not the stuff that he asked about. The motion was approved with Trustee St. Germain, Trustee Strong, Trustee Wilmer, and Dep. Mayor Browning, all voting in favor of the same.

He thinks it is a good thing that we are starting, so anybody that knows anybody, anybody that lives on a street; he would like to be a champion for his street. He explained it is an interesting program that started in Fulton, it is contagious, once one house does some improvements to the front yard; to the front of the house, and the next person may be will. He stated Oswego has done it and they have lots of student housing and they are making parts of streets very nice. He spoke of East Syracuse being a little ahead of us, they have a committee in gear, so if you know of anybody that wants to get involved; let us know, we will put it together and get a copy of that in your hands. Village Clerk-Treasurer Kufel stated she thought it was a wonderful program, from just painting a stair rail it is great. The Mayor stated we are going to continue to promote.

CITIZENS’ VOICE: The Mayor invited anyone that wished to share concerns or thoughts to address the Board. The Mayor asked if anyone would like to speak and closed Citizen’s Voice.

ATTORNEY REPORT: He stated as the Board was aware we had a Zoning Board of Appeals (Z.B.A.) Meeting and we had a case come up with a number of interested citizens which is a bit unusual. He continued in the course of the process for both the Z.B.A. and the Planning Commission (P.C.), there were a number of questions; confusions over the applicability in the rules and regulations associated with the open meetings law as they applied. He went on to say we also had some discussions with respect to the rules and regulations regarding recusal, and so on so forth. He stated the greater concern he was surprised to learn that a significant number of the Board members both the Planning Commission and the Z.B.A. did not understand the application of the Public Officers Law Open Meetings Law to them. He continued there was concern if they are out at the grocery and run into a fellow Board member are we having an illegal meeting. He explained a couple of things for the benefit of you, and it is in the record. He stated the Open Meetings Law comes from a thing called the Public Officers Law; it is only applicable to public officers, further more it is applicable boards, bureaus, commissions, committees and so on, so it is not applicable to police officers or fire officers, because they do not constitute a committee, board or bureau. He continued it is applicable to every other administrative board, bureau, commission or committee or whatever you call it that deals with anything applicable of any of the government laws. He explained what it prohibits is the conduct of public business in private. He stated it does not prohibit casual or incidental conversation about public business between Board members whether it is legislative, administrative, or quasi-judicial. He continued basically, two or three P.C. members cannot get together at the local restaurant and talk. about a pending case if it leads to consensus or determination; it is the conduct of the public business that is the quintessential element of the Open Meetings Law. He explained the reason why it started to get confusing in the case of the P.C. and the Z.B.A. is because of the application of another law. He stated the Z.B.A. is what is called a quasi-judicial body, they are kind of like a judge, and they can have no interaction with the defendant; in fact if they even know the defendant, in the same church, they have to recuse themselves. He continued they have to be completely impartial, so if a Z.B.A. member has formed an opinion in our heads, significant discussions with respect to a matter pending the before the Z.B.A.; recusal is required. P.C. members on the other hand, are administrative board members; their job is to administer a set of rules and regulations as opposed to sitting in judgement. He explained there, recusal is more a question of their conscious, what the law requires is that there be impartiality in their judgement. He stated however, if there has been discussion outside of the forum that must be disclosed, in other words, the P.C. Board member can say, I bumped into the applicant at Nice & Easy last week. He continued and the applicant talked to me for 3 or 4 minutes and told me about a flooding problem, so she (P.C.) member wanted you to know that, but she can still be impartial, that solves the problem; they are not required to recuse under those circumstances, but they are required to disclose, so we do that for distinctions. He went on to say however, these regulations both the Opens Meeting Law and the recusal, etc. are applicable to all Boards across the board, and be it administrative, judicial or legislative. He stated a few years back he used to have an annual party at his house for all of his clients for legislative, P.C. and Z.B.A. members and we had all Board members at the meeting or certainly a majority present, but we were not there to discuss business that was not the purpose of the meeting, it was social and that is not a violation of the Open Meetings Law. He explained it is only where the purpose of the get together is for the purpose of reaching decisions or discussing public business out of the sight of the public that the Open Meetings Law applies. He stated you need to be aware that people are sensitive these issues depending on your role and he is saying this not only for this Board, but the P.C. and Z.B.A. He added you do not do to be so hypersensitive about it that you walk on the other side of the street when you see 3 Trustees or 3 P.C. or 3 Z.B.A. members walking on the other side of the street. He stated that is not what the Open Meetings Law is about; it is not meant to prohibit that kind of activity, social get together, informational to learn more about it, or if 3 Trustees are at one of the Parks Directors events, and they are hanging out at the dunking booth, then they are not in violation of the Open Meetings Law even thou it is a Village function. Dep. Mayor Browning asked what if a meeting is called for discussion of issues, problems, that kind of thing which we have right here at our Board meeting every two weeks Citizens Voice where the whole Board is involved. Atty. Chatfield went on to say the Opens Meeting Law you can discuss anything at any time, as long as there is a Public Notice. Dep. Mayor Browning reiterated you stated a social function, this that we are going to have coming up in a couple of weeks is not a social function; she would not consider it a social function. She asked if asking citizens to come have a piece of pizza and tell us your problems. Atty. Chatfield stated well that is social, he would lump social, political and all that sort of thing together in the same general rubric. He continued certainly as you speak now about legislative Board members as distinguished from P.C. and Z.B.A. members, now they because their involved in a very different role than legislative members, administrative members and quasi-judicial board members. He clarified their single issue, P.C. members and Z.B.A. members; the issue of the conduct of public business is specific to particular cases that appear in front of them. He stated they could never lawfully get together even at a social function and discuss issues that are pending in front of them and they talked about whether the time of the meeting should be shifted from this point to that point; that would not be considered a violation of the Open Meetings Law. He continued if they talked about Billy Jones application and anything related to the merits of it, P.C. members would have to disclose that and it would be problematic from the Open Meetings Law; it might not require recusal. He explained legislative member on the other hand have far greater latitude in terms of their ability to get together, because they are essentially political creatures. He stated there is a political process that it has to go through to get elected whereas administrative and quasi-judicial members are appointed. He gave an example, let us take the factious Town of Acme, where the town supervisor and all the board members are of the same political party and during election season they always get together during which time they talk about public business; that is in the political forum, it is not a violation of the open meetings law. He stated unless they are already sitting Board members and they are making determinations outside of the public view which then simply get rubber stamped at the next meeting. He continued the notion of having a forum to welcome input, he took something currently topical. He stated Onondaga County is spraying; pretend we are the Town of Cicero now, not the Village of North Syracuse. He continued there is a political controversy arising as to whether it is wise or unwise to spray the Cicero Swamp and the Board wants to collect information, now the perfect solution would be to call a public notice because that is all the Open Meetings Law requires. He explained let us say time is short, they simply need to get the input, as long as no determination is made and it is simply one information flow in one direction; that would not be considered a violation of the Open Meetings Law, because its purpose is not to conduct public business in private. He stated that is the thing that you have to latch on to, that is the essence of the Open Meetings Law. He continued if you are conducting business and making decisions that requires that they all be done and not just rubber stamps. He explained in other word some down state municipalities have the habit of having two meetings, one which is private and they would decide everything right then and there knowing exactly who is going to vote, who is going to make the motion and so on and so forth. He stated at the meeting it was scripted and they went through the motions at the meeting, but that went to court and you are doing an end run around the spirit of the law. He went on to say to make it even more confusing, he is talking about the letter of the law. He stated there are also the spirit and the impression; you never want to give the public the impression that you are doing something wrong and that means sometimes you have to error on the side of caution, but that is a matter of individual judgement, not a matter of law. He stated the controversial one was passed and that was the Twin Trees Parking Lot issue; there was a lot of wrestling, compromise and problems associated with it, but it did finally get approved. He continued there was an issue raised at both the ZBA and PC Meetings with respect to those Electronic Message Board Signs. He stated both of those organizations, the church and Meals on Wheels are not for profit and not commercial. He continued the church, one side is on S. Bay Rd. is residential and the other is on Rt. 11 is commercial. Our ordinance for both of those properties we zoned R-9 which prohibited both of those signs. He explained the Board went back and forth because they felt the request was reasonable, but the standards are very difficult to satisfy, because of the prohibition about signage in all cases. He stated churches are allowed in the R-9 zone, but they cannot have a sign, so both of the Boards suggested that maybe the Village Board would like to take a look at notion of finding a way to permit those kinds of entities. He continued the Fire Dept. would have to be a Village Fire Dept. which means it is exempt from the Village zoning regulations, but if the Fire Dept. was a private not for profit Fire Dept. Corporation, it would not have been allowed to have the sign if it was in an R-9 zone. He suggested that maybe we want to look at in addition to simply the zoning district, the nature of the use to determine whether they should or should not be allowed, because these signs are going to be coming up more and more often.

DEPUTY MAYOR-TRUSTEES REPORT:

Trustee St. Germain: She stated we have a Code that in the winter time from November to April that there are no vehicles parked on the street from a certain time to a certain time. She continued she lives in a circle and in the summer time it opens it up, everyone likes to come and go and parking in the street. She stated have work that is being done and they can have a contractor park in front of the house, in the driveway; do whatever they do and then they are gone. She stated in her circle they do not go, at the end of the day that is where they come and that is where they park and that is where they stay. She continued it is hard to weave in and out and residents have come to her to ask what they can do about it; it is filthy from the work, vehicles and everything. She showed photos of a truck followed by a trailer with a drivable mower and in front of that is another trailer attached to a truck in front of that and then you come into the circle; it is like this most every evening. She stated across from this house there is being construction done, but nothing leaves; it just stays and coming into the circle and going out of the circle, that is the only way in and out. She stated she is not proposing that work vehicles do not come into the circle, but at the end of the day, go find your own parking spot. She added it does not matter what the season is, it is there all year round; it does not seem like it is residential anymore with so many commercial vehicles and it is dangerous going in and out. She spoke of CEO Johnstone being good, going there and talking to the people, the Police Chief and officers patrolling all the time. She suggested if the Board thought it was O.K. idea, maybe we could say that no construction vehicles with permanent parking in our residential areas.

Trustee Strong: He stated the following:
- He thanked Parks Director Roth and the Parks Dept. for being busy, numbers increased, pool being maintained when beaches could not due to lifeguard shortages
- He thanked Eagle Newspapers for new Instagram account; a lot of good feedback from that
- He suggested departments may want to use that platform to get things out; it is well received
- He thanked the Clerk-Treasurer tracking down the exempt properties list; just under $47,000,000 in assessed property we do not receive property taxes in 60%, one town of Village, he was glad they can realize $3,700 from catching that
- He wanted to remind people that toss out the PILOT idea, it is long term with rippling effects

Trustee Wilmer: He thanked Atty. Chatfield for the clarifications on the laws, he learned a lot.

Dep. Mayor Browning: She congratulated our new Police Officer, she knows they will see him at every meeting, but will miss the Police Chief; she wished the best of luck to him.

MAYOR’S REPORT:

The Mayor stated Church St. is a mess right now and he has spoken to the project manager for OCWA, they are having a little trouble getting the lines clean out and scourer so they can test it, so they can button up that side. He continued after they are done there, they are supposed to go down to Chestnut St. He added unfortunately our new road is going to be postponed until springtime. He stated it is not a bad thing, because you would not want to bid a project this late in the year, because the prices will be high, so we need to continue to be patient. He continued the Taste of North Syracuse, we tried to work on this last year, and he showed a sample brochure that they are working on for the week of October 5th through the 13th in conjunction with the Fire Dept. Safer Week. He stated those who participate, it would be nice to have this in their window or somewhere displayed. He added we are going to do a banner and hang it from each of our five signs, Welcome to the Village down at the entrance to the Village. He stated there is an I-81 Meeting at Chestnut Middle School next week. He continued the canvas letters have gone out and are back; we have interviews that are being set up for September 4th for the new Police Chief hire and that is the start of the process. He stated our Chief is heading up to Cicero and then we will have a new Chief as some point. He stated he has had conversations with the D.O.T. about the deteriorating condition of Rt. 11. He continued not only is Chestnut/Church St. in poor repair, but Rt. 11 is not getting any better. He stated they do recognize that they have targeted Rt. 11. From 7th North St. thru Rt. 31 with the Village of North Syracuse being a high priority, so we will see what that does. He continued we were supposed to get new sidewalks this year, but they have cancelled them, because of budget constraints. He spoke of it being kind of embarrassing now as you go up and down Rt. 11 and the Village. He stated he will keep working on the D.O.T. and reaching out to them to find out when we are going to get some actual work. He continued he noticed south of us they are repainting the lines which does not indicate that they are going to be doing any paving anytime soon. He welcomes our new officer as well.

Dep. Mayor Browning made a motion to adjourn at 5:47 PM. The motion was seconded by Trustee St. Germain. The motion was approved with Trustee St. Germain, Trustee Strong, Trustee Wilmer, and Dep. Mayor Browning, all voting in favor of the same.

Respectfully submitted,
